

Moazzam Iftikhar Ahmed

Moazzam was the Senior Country Officer for the International Finance Corporation (IFC) part World Bank Group in Pakistan for over 14 years. He was the head of IFC's Karachi office in Pakistan and part of the region management team. While at IFC, he managed multiple positions including business development, portfolio management and processing transactions in the MENA and Africa Region. Moazzam joined IFC in 2005 when the Pakistan portfolio was less than $250 million at the time of his departure IFC's portfolio was $1.2 billion.

Prior to IFC, Moazzam was a consultant with Cap Gemini Ernst and Young (Global Consulting Firm) for over 10 years, with their Chicago office. He was involved with CGEY's strategy division and involved in developing strategies for fortune 50 companies in the US, these include pharmaceutical and utility sectors. Moazzam was the key member of the TXU (Texas Utility) turnaround team during the deregulation of the electricity sector in Texas, USA.

Moazzam has been involved in several start-up in the United States and Pakistan. He has an MBA from Duke University and a B.A in Economics from the College of Wooster.